

Charalambos Tambourakis – Curriculum Vitae

Mr. Charalambos Tambourakis holds both undergraduate and postgraduate degrees in Business Administration. He has thirty years of experience in the fields of corporate financial management, accounting, and auditing management of businesses, as well as in providing consulting services in these areas. His extensive professional experience is the result of working across various business sectors. He is a member of the Hellenic Management Association, the Hellenic Institute of Marketing, the Institute of Financial Management, and the Economic Chamber of Athens.