

Paras Barot – Curriculum Vitae

--

Mr. Paras Barot is a Greek-Canadian national with over fifteen (15) years of international professional experience in the fields of strategy and business planning across various sectors, including Financial Services, Technology, and Consulting.

Currently based in Dubai (United Arab Emirates), Paras has held and continues to hold various leadership and advisory roles in major organizations and businesses, such as Goldman Sachs, HSBC, and Munich Re.

Paras possesses specialized experience in guiding strategic initiatives and providing advisory services to senior corporate executives regarding the decision-making and execution of significant business decisions. This experience includes the design and management of large-scale strategic business transformation projects.

Paras holds an undergraduate degree in Business Administration and a master's degree in Innovation Management & Technology Policy from the city where he grew up, London, United Kingdom.

His analytical thinking and capability, combined with his leadership and organizational skills, enable him to successfully tackle demanding challenges and foster the creation of high-performance teams in diverse international environments.

With proven experience in leading critical initiatives and providing advisory services to senior business executives on an international level, he is dedicated and highly experienced in strategic development planning and operational excellence in the technology sector.